

What has been one of your greatest accomplishments this year?

What has been one of your greatest struggles this year?

What is the one thing do as a parent that bothers you most?

Mom:

Dad:

How are things between you and God?

Has anything happened in your life in this year that we don't know about but that you think we should know about?

Finish the sentence:
I feel most loved by me when....

Mom:

Dad:

If you could have one thing different in our family, what would it be?

What is your #1 desire or dream that you would like to see become a reality in the coming year?

Is there anything (nothing is off limits) that you would like to talk with us about or ask us about?

Is there anything that we can do to help you reach that goal?
